

GEORGETOWN HEIGHTS ELDERLY APARTMENT COMPLEX

Applications are being accepted from eligible elderly individuals and couples who wish to rent a one-bedroom or two-bedroom apartment at 113 Georgetown Heights, Dalmatia, Pennsylvania. Applications can be obtained from Linda Mincemoyer at the SEDA-COG Office Complex, 201 Furnace Road, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, 17837, or by calling 1-800-326-9310.

WHAT IS GEORGETOWN HEIGHTS APARTMENT COMPLEX?

The apartment complex consists of 24 individual living units designed to house senior citizens 55 years of age or older. These apartments offer modern, maintenance-free, and affordable living. All of the apartments consist of a combined kitchen/dining area, living room, bedroom, and bathroom. The facility also has luxuriously-furnished community spaces located throughout. These spaces include a community room, sitting lounges, a library, a computer lab, and a three-season porch overlooking the Susquehanna River Valley.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Individuals who are at least 55 years of age and whose annual incomes are at or below $23,400 for one-person households and $26,700 for two-person households.

HOW MUCH RENT DOES A RESIDENT PAY?

$505 for a one-bedroom apartment $580 for a two-bedroom apartment. The monthly rent includes all utilities with the exception of cable television and telephone.

Note: Rent and income subject to change.

Equal Housing
Opportunity